Personal data will be contained in documentation and evidence collated in connection with the Review. Personal data may be collected from the data subject when they provide information or documents, or be contained in other documentation or information provided to the Independent Reviewer by third parties in connection with the Review.

Personal data will be processed in connection with the review in pursuit of the legitimate interests of RICS as set out in the Review's Terms of Reference.

Personal data shared directly with the Independent Reviewer may be shared with RICS if it is considered necessary to share such information to fulfil the Terms of Reference, and at the discretion of the Independent Reviewer.

Personal data may be disclosed more widely as part of the Review report if this is deemed to be in the legitimate interests of RICS.
